where is Prince Rupert?

Prince Rupert is a vibrant coastal city located on the northern edge of British Columbia, surrounded by stunning natural beauty. Here's how you can reach us:

Driving

From Vancouver: Take the Cariboo Hwy/BC-97 N1, then take the Yellowhead Hwy W/BC-16 all the way to Prince Rupert. This scenic route takes about 18-20 hours, so plan for an overnight stop (Prince George is about half way). Make sure to check the road report at www.drivebc.ca

Flying

Air Canada offers daily flights from Vancouver to the Prince Rupert Airport (YPR) on Digby Island. Upon arrival, a short ferry ride included in the price of your plane ticket will take you to the city.

You may also choose to fly to Terrace where there are other flight options, and then drive to Prince Rupert (143km).

National Car Rental is available if you need a vehicle while in Prince Rupert 250-624-5318

BC Ferries

Prince Rupert is a key terminal for BC Ferries, with routes connecting from Vancouver Island and other coastal communities. Hop aboard in Port Hardy and enjoy a scenic 16-hour sailing along the Inside Passage to Prince Rupert.

what to do in Prince Rupert

From fishing, hiking, and shopping, to exploring history and culture -
there is something for everyone!

Shopping

CowBay

Cow Bay is a quirky, colourful district where restored historic buildings house artist collectives, shops, and offices. Walk on boardwalks built over the water on pilings and smell the salty air from the harbour. Wander through the wide array of shops and galleries, browsing everything from local art and pottery to modern clothing boutiques and artisan food markets.

Rupert Square Mall

The Rupert Square Shopping Centre is located on 2nd Avenue in the heart of downtown Prince Rupert. It has been open to the public since 1974. The 20 businesses located in the mall offer a wide range of services and products.

Historic Downtown

Little restaurants half-hide themselves among the shops, banks, gift shops, and galleries. Like in Cow Bay, there's a lot to see here. The odd historic building peeks out from between its more modern neighbours; beautiful old houses gaze down from the top of the hill; a small gallery sits next to a salon, next to a clothing shop, across from City Hall. There's jewellery, paintings, clothing, gifts, and souvenirs, books, and lots more.
