- A basket to add to our raffle basket table with items that represent the town that you come from. This is not mandatory but highly appreciated! This will go to further the sense of community we wish to establish for these provincial games.
- In this package, you will see a page with the link for BC Hockey Provincial Merch. Please note that this is a different company than what has been used in the past. Items must be purchased before March 5th in order to arrive in time. Please select your team in the drop down menu. If you do not see your team listed, please email kitimatminorhockey@gmail.com so that we can get that added for you.

Relief Goalies

- There is only one relief goalie that will be available as replacements should your starting goalie be unable to play. We are a VERY small community with large distances between communities in the North West so it is highly recommended that you bring two goalies in case injury or illness should happen.

Fair Play Award

The Fair Play Award in hockey is typically presented to a team, player, or organization that exemplifies sportsmanship, respect for opponents and officials, and clean, ethical play throughout a season or tournament. While specific awards may vary depending on the league or governing body, the concept is consistent: recognizing those who uphold the spirit of the game with dignity and integrity.

This year, the fair play award will be given to the team that shows the most sportsmanlike behavior both ON and OFF the ice. This includes the behavior of the players, the coaches and the parents. We will be looking at behaviors of the team and coaches on the ice. How they treat the referees, how they win or lose with dignity and to a degree, the penalties. Major penalties and game misconducts will also be looked at.

Positive behavior by hockey players in our town contributes to a strong sense of community, sets a positive example for younger athletes, and enhances the overall spirit of the game

Positive behavior by hockey coaches is essential for creating a positive and productive environment for players, fostering their growth both as athletes and individuals. Coaches serve as role models and leaders, influencing not only their team's success but also the culture of the sport.

Positive behavior by parents in the stands at a hockey game is essential for fostering a positive and supportive environment for the players, officials, and other spectators.

We will be checking in with local hotels and restaurants throughout the tournament and keeping an eye on the behavior in the stands to determine the winner of the fair play award. We are working with local industry to provide the winner with a one of a kind token of our appreciation to the kindness shown to our community during your stay. The award will be presented at the end of the final game the winning team plays.

We are a hockey town and our community members are looking forward to welcoming your team and your families to our little slice of paradise on the North West Coast!

Nestled at the head of the Douglas Channel, this community offers a unique blend of breathtaking landscapes and opportunities for adventure. Here's an overview of what makes Kitimat special:

We acknowledge that we are living, working and playing on the unceded Haisla traditional territory.

We are grateful for the many opportunities that this privilege affords us.

H AISLA
NATION

Our Haisla History

The Haisla, meaning “dwellers downriver”, have occupied their traditional territory since time immemorial. Today, the Haisla people are centered on Kitamaat Village. Home to approximately 700 of the 2023+ Haisla membership, Kitamaat Village sits at the head of the Douglas Channel in British Columbia. The balance of the Haisla live in places such as Kitimat, Terrace, Prince Rupert, in the metro Vancouver area and the United States.

Today’s Haisla Nation is an amalgamation of two historic bands – the Kitamaat of the Douglas and Devastation channels and the Kitlope of the upper Princess Royal Channel and Gardner Canal. Neighbouring nations include the Heiltsuk and Wuikinuxv bands of the Coast Tsimshian peoples.

Living and working on the water has always been important to the Haisla, and that remains so today. The Haisla people have lived off the land and water resources of the Douglas Channel and our traditional territory for hundreds of years, and protection of those resources for future generations is a strong commitment by every Haisla member.

Our territory’s resources have sustained us for generations, providing us with food, shelter, and livelihood. We have worked hard to harvest food, build our villages, and develop the resources we need to survive. The land is connected to our past, our culture, and now, our future.

The Haisla social system is based on matrilineal clans. Each clan has a hiń áas (hey-maus: chief) and músmeził (moos-moo-gheethl: matriarch). The present day clan system is as follows: Beaver, Raven, Eagle, Killer Whale/Black Fish/Salmon. Historically there were the Crow, Frog and Wolf clans but due to declining numbers they amalgamated with other clans.

Most Haisla continue to carry on the traditions of hunting, berry picking, gathering and fishing. Every spring, Haisla family groups still travel to the Kemano River for oolichan fishing. During oolichan season the village is full of the rich smell of the fish smoking. After a long, hard North Coast winter, oolichan are the first fish returning to spawn in local rivers. The Haisla use oolichan for almost everything, from food to medicine. Haisla people learned to boil oolichan and make it into a pure white grease, becoming experts producing a quality well known up and down BC’s Coast. Haisla people still trade this valuable commodity with neighbouring villages.

Travelling Info

Warning: Kitimat is the Haisla word for, "People of the snow." What that means, is we get snow. A LOT OF SNOW. Typically, February brings our largest snow dump. We have been known to get dumps of snow 2-6ft in 24 hours. We also have temperate temperatures so our snow rarely compacts to become ice. Instead, we get slush. HWY crews are continuously out in full force, but please make sure you have winter tires on, and drive slowly and for the conditions.

By vehicle

Wherever you are coming from, you will make your way to Prince George (very close to the geographical center of BC. From Prince George, you will make your way west on HWY 16 and head towards Terrace. As you reach Terrace, you will take a left at the round-about and head to Kitimat via HWY 37. We are an approximate 6 hour drive from Prince George. When we have long trips to make because of hockey tournaments, we like to break our trip up and stay half way. Our favorite half way point is to stop in Prince George is:

The Best Western Plus.
3387 BC-16
1-250-964-8833

We like this hotel because it's on the outskirts of town on the way to Kitimat. It has a great breakfast and pool creating lots of fun memories for the kids during these long travel days.

Check road conditions here:
<https://www.drivebc.ca/>

By Air

You may not want to make the long drive in the middle of the winter. If you are coming from the greater Vancouver area, you are looking easily at a 14 hour drive. If you choose to fly, you will want to fly into the Terrace BC Airport (YXT) It's a very small airport but flights come in and out of Kitimat 3 times a day. Terrace airport is about a 30 min drive from Kitimat. Our cab companies aren't super reliable and often don't book pre-ordered rides. This leads to my next point. Vehicle rental places. The following are vehicle rental places located at the Terrace airport (Northwest Regional Airport).

Things to do

Tamitik Jubilee sports center - upstairs in the arena, through the main blue doors, you will gain access to our pool! Diving board, water park, water slide, lazy river, sauna and hot tub are all included.

Riverlodge Recreation Center - Down town towards the Microtel Hotel is our rec center. Here you can rent out the gym for floor hockey, sports, or wall climbing. Various classes are offered in the evenings at Riverlodge and might be a welcome addition to the player's families. Updates to come once the spring guide comes out.

MK Bay Marina - A short drive down to the Kitimaat Village, you will have access to the Douglas Channel (Ocean). This is an incredible viewing area of the ocean, and there is even a short hiking trail to a look out point (Gazebo). This particular area comes to live during the week of March 17th every year. The herring are chased into the marina by sea lions and Orca whales. Whale sightings are known during this time and it is a marvel to watch the locals fish for herring. Herring is used in the Indigenous culture as well as to local fisherpeople who use it as bait for salmon and halibut fishing.

Minette Bay and Alcan Beach are fantastic areas to go for a picnic lunch and view the beauties of our Ocean!

Museum and Cultural Activities

- Kitimat Museum and Archives: A great place to learn about the history of the area, including its Indigenous heritage and the town's industrial development. This could be a nice indoor activity if you need a break from the cold.
- Haisla Nation Cultural Centre: If you want to learn about the local Indigenous culture, this centre offers exhibits and cultural information about the Haisla people.

Hirsch Creek Trail is a popular hiking trail located in the Kitimat region of British Columbia. It offers outdoor enthusiasts an opportunity to explore the natural beauty of the area, with views of forests, streams, and, in some cases, glimpses of the surrounding mountains and valleys.

The Kitimat River is another great spot to visit if you're in the mood for a walk or a relaxing time by the water.

BEAR AWARE

In Kitimat, BC, as in much of rural and wilderness areas of British Columbia, bear awareness is essential for anyone spending time outdoors. Bears, particularly black bears and grizzly bears, are common in the region, and understanding how to stay safe and minimize risks is important for both residents and visitors. Here are some key tips and resources to help you stay bear aware in Kitimat:

Bear Species in Kitimat, BC:

- Black Bears: These are the most common bear species in the Kitimat region. They tend to be smaller than grizzly bears but can still be dangerous if provoked or surprised.
- Grizzly Bears: While less common than black bears, grizzly bears do inhabit the area, especially in more remote or mountainous regions. They are typically larger and more aggressive, particularly when defending food or their cubs.

Terrace

A short drive from Kitimat (about 50 minutes), Terrace is a larger town with more shopping, dining, and recreational options. It's worth the trip if you want to explore a bit outside Kitimat.

Terrace Pool refers to the Terrace Aquatic Centre, a popular community facility offering a range of aquatic amenities for both recreation and fitness.

Bubbleland in Terrace, BC, is an indoor play center designed for children to have fun and burn off some energy. It's especially popular for families with younger children, offering a safe and engaging environment for play.

Skeena Mall is the primary shopping center in Terrace, BC, offering a mix of retail stores, services, and food options. It's an important commercial hub in the city and serves as a go-to destination for locals and visitors alike, providing a variety of shopping, dining, and entertainment opportunities.
