Overview

The Criminal Records Review Act ensures that people who work with or may have potential for unsupervised access to children or vulnerable adults undergo a criminal record check by the Criminal Records Review Program (CRRP).

Volunteers and employees who undergo criminal record checks in accordance with the Criminal Records Review Act will obtain a web link and unique access code from their registered volunteer or employer organization, to make their own Criminal Record Check submission.

An applicant can share the results of a previous valid criminal record check at no cost with other organizations enrolled or registered with the CRRP.

Sharing a Criminal Record Check

An applicant may be able to share a previous criminal record check with a new organization if they have a valid check that was completed by the CRRP within the last 5 years for the same "works with" category. If this option exists to the applicant, it will be presented at the Information Review page.

Note: It is important to contact the organization to confirm if they will accept a previous criminal record check clearance. An organization can decide whether it will accept a shared criminal record check result and may ask the applicant to consent to a new criminal record check.

The screenshot shows a form with a "Country" dropdown set to "CANADA". Below this is a "DECLARATION" section with a checked checkbox stating: "I certify that, to the best of my knowledge, the information I have provided and will provide as necessary is complete and accurate. *".

Below the declaration is a section titled "SHARE YOUR EXISTING CRIMINAL RECORD CHECK" which is highlighted with a red box. It contains the following text:

If you are an employee or volunteer, you can share the results of your valid criminal record check at no cost. You have an existing valid criminal record check.

Note: An organization can decide whether or not they will accept a shared criminal record check result and may ask you to consent to a new criminal record check.

At the bottom of the form, there are three buttons: "Edit Application", "Share Previous CRC" (which is circled in red), and "Submit New CRC".

If the applicant chooses to share their previous valid criminal record check, they will be directed to a page where they will be required to Consent to Share a Criminal Record Check.

The screenshot shows the 'Consent to Share a Criminal Record Check' form. At the top, there is a header with the British Columbia logo and the text 'Criminal Record Check'. Below the header, the title 'Consent to Share a Criminal Record Check' is displayed. The text 'I, CRC TWO, consent to the following:' is followed by a blue bar labeled 'CONSENT'. Below this bar, there are three checkboxes with corresponding text. The first checkbox is unchecked and states: 'I understand that to share the result of a criminal record check, I must have completed a criminal record check within the last 5 years through the Criminal Records Review Programs (CRRP) and the sharing request must be for the same type of check as previously completed, either for children, vulnerable adults, or both children and vulnerable adults. *'. The second checkbox is unchecked and states: 'I confirm I have completed a criminal record check within the past five years with the CRRP which did not result in a determination of risk to children and/or vulnerable adults as defined in the Criminal Records Review Act. I understand no details will be disclosed to the organization I am applying to, only the result. I hereby consent to share the result of the completed check with the organization I am applying to. *'. The third checkbox is unchecked and states: 'I understand that if the Registrar determines I do not have a criminal record check to share according to the above criteria, I will be promptly notified. *'.

After selecting the check boxes in the consent, select Continue.

The screenshot shows the bottom of the consent form. It contains a single checked checkbox with the text: 'I understand that within 5 years of the date of my completing this Consent to Share a Criminal Record Check form, should the CRRP make a determination that I pose a risk to children and/or vulnerable adults, the Deputy Registrar will promptly provide notification to me and to the persons and entities (organizations) identified on this Consent to Share a Criminal Record Check. *'. Below this text, there are two buttons: 'Cancel and Exit' on the left and 'Continue' on the right. The 'Continue' button is highlighted with a red oval.

When a Criminal Record Check is shared, no payment is required.
