

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING RESPECT IN SPORT CERTIFICATION

In recognition of the success of the Respect in Sport (RIS) program and positive feedback by members, BC Hockey is introducing Re-Certification for the RIS Program. All delegates in BC Hockey who have Respect in Sport certificates more than five (5) years old will be requested to re-certify in the program. Certifications will now automatically expire on July 31 annually, five (5) years from the date of your original certification (ie. Date taken Oct 12, 2019 = Expiry date July 31, 2024). On July 31 on the year of your expiry, your BC Hockey Respect in Sport profile will be set for re-certification.

Previously Taken Respect in Sport Program: DO NOT CREATE A NEW USER PROFILE

- Using the same username and password created during your original certification, log into Respect in Sport for BC Hockey (link below)
 - Note: If you do not remember your username or password, click the button “Retrieve Username” and / or “Retrieve Password” and follow the prompts
- After logging in, a small pop-up window will be displayed advising you that your profile has been set for re-certification
 - Note: If this message indicating your profile has reset is not displayed, your existing certificate has not yet expired. You cannot recertify until your RIS certificate has expired. Recertification would begin August 1st
- After selecting OK, you will be redirected to purchase program access. Payment is completed through PayPal
- Once payment is complete, you will automatically be returned to the program
- Select the appropriate language to begin
- After completing the program and the subsequent survey, a confirmation email will be sent to the email address on your profile. Your updated certificate number will be applied to your records with BC Hockey and Hockey Canada
- You may print out your updated certificate by selecting “My Certifications” in the Profile section of the program

For members who have previously taken the face to face clinic Respect in Sport (“Speak Out”) please click the “Register a New User” button and follow the links.

- Respect in Sport is a third party company; therefore it will not have your information from the “Speak Out” program that is now expired.
