UP 23 Appendix L (NEW)

The College and Union recognize that technological changes may affect job security and the nature of the work performed. The parties agree that the College will not implement technological changes that may result in the elimination of bargaining unit positions, without consultation and written agreement from the Union. As such, the parties will attempt to minimise or eliminate the detrimental effects of any such technological changes, and will endeavour to discuss and solve such issues at Union College Committees.

The College agrees that it will provide, as much advance notice as is practicable but, at least three hundred and sixty-five (365) days' written notice, except in cases of emergency, to the Union of the introduction or implementation of technological change when it may result in significant changes in the employment status or working conditions of the employees.

The written notice provided will include the following information:

- a. the nature and degree of the technological change;
- b. the date or dates on which the College proposes to effect the technological change;
- c. the location or locations involved;
- d. the approximate number and type of employees likely to be affected by the technological change;
- e. the effect that the technological change is likely to have on the terms and conditions of employment of the employees affected.
- f. the business case and all other documentation that demonstrates the need for the technological change and the complete formal and documented risk assessment that was undertaken as the change pertains to the employees directly impacted, all employees who may be impacted, any College community members who may be impacted, and any mitigation options that have been considered.
- g. if applicable, nature and duration of employee training required by new technology

UP 26 12.9 (NEW)

12.9 Domestic Violence Leave

The College shall grant paid leave to an employee experiencing family and domestic violence.

Reasons for this leave can include, but are not limited to:

- illness or injury affecting the employee resulting from family and domestic violence;
- providing care or support to a family member experiencing family and domestic violence, who is ill or injured as a result of family and domestic violence;
- providing care or support to a family member experiencing family and domestic violence, who is affected by an emergency as a result of family and domestic violence;
- making arrangements for the employee's safety, or the safety of a family member;
- accessing alternative accommodation;
- accessing police services;
- attending court hearings;
- attending counselling; and
- attending appointments with medical, financial or legal professionals.

This entitlement may be taken as consecutive days, single days or part days and will count as continuous service for all purposes.

Given the emergency context in which leave may need to be accessed, employees can proceed to take the leave and seek approval at a later date, as soon as practicable.

The College will acknowledge and take into account an employee's experience of family and domestic violence if an employee's attendance or performance at work is or has been affected.

UP 27 Appendix D

The remaining provisions of the article remain status quo, unless stated below

5. NEW (numbering to be determined)

If an employee is the successful internal candidate for a regular full-time position and has completed 910 hours in the previous 12 month period as an Appendix D which they held immediately prior as an Appendix D, then the College shall waive the probationary period set out in Article 14.1 provided that the employee worked at least 910 hours in the Appendix D position.

6. The employee shall be entitled to the provisions of Articles 4.4, 6.6, 7.5, and 10 of the Agreement.

Employees hired for positions greater than four (4) months, shall be entitled to two (2) days per year to use for any of the following leaves; short term disability, bereavement leave, jury/witness duty, citizenship leave.

9. If an employee is appointed to a regular bargaining unit position after September 23, 1997, they shall be credited with full seniority, after completion of the probationary period, based on full credit for Appendix D service calculated at a day's seniority for each day worked (261 days of work equals one (1) year). When an Appendix D employee is appointed to a regular bargaining unit position and has previous service as a part-time Support Staff employee, seniority shall also be credited in accordance with Article 14.3.

An Employee hired into a permanent full-time position, shall earn service for all hours worked as an Appendix D.

An employee under this Appendix may be hired before the commencement of the leave of the bargaining unit employee to allow for appropriate familiarization cross-training. If the bargaining unit employee does not return to their position, the employee hired under this Appendix may continue to be employed under this Appendix until a replacement is hired and orientation completed.

UP 31 – On-call Union amends the employer proposal

6.4 On-Call

On-Call refers to time periods during which an employee must be available and able to respond, within a reasonable time, to resolve a problem either by returning to the workplace or off-site (if applicable). On-call applies to time periods that are not regular working hours, overtime, stand-by or call back.

An employee assigned to be on-call is not required to stay at home, but they must make sure that they can be contacted and are able to start work within a reasonable time. It is understood that a return to the workplace may not be necessary in all situations. There shall be no pyramiding of premiums. Where the employee is recalled, the provisions of Article 6.3 shall apply.

Where an employee is assigned to be on-call, they shall receive one dollar ($1.00) per hour for all hours that they are required to be on-call. No employee shall be required to be on-call or be assigned on-call duty unless authorized in writing by their immediate Supervisor.

An employee assigned to be on-call shall not be paid for the on-call period, or part of the on-call period, if they were not available or were unable to work due to illness or other circumstances beyond their control.

Where the College requires employees to be on-call, qualified employees in the work group shall be selected first on a volunteer basis, in order of seniority, on a rotational basis. Where there are insufficient volunteers, assignment shall be made by reverse order of seniority. However, no employee shall be required to be on-call for more than one hundred and twenty-eight (128) hours per month. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no employee shall be prevented from voluntarily exceeding this maximum. The on-call premium shall be three dollars ($3.00) one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per hour for all on-call hours up to the monthly maximum, and five($5.00) three dollars ($3.00) per hour for an employee who voluntarily exceeds the monthly maximum.

Such leave shall not be unreasonably denied. On the death of an employee's aunt or uncle, an employee, upon request, shall be granted a leave of absence of one (1) day without loss of pay in order to attend the funeral.

UP 43 4.4

4.4.1 Sexual Harassment

The Colleges and the Union are aware of the provisions of the Ontario Human Rights Code that provide that persons have the right to be free from a sexual solicitation or advance in the workplace where the person making the solicitation or advance knows or ought to know that it is unwelcome. Both parties subscribe to this principle, and to that end, acknowledge the following objectives:

- a complaint of this nature shall be promptly investigated and, where warranted, appropriate action taken;
- every effort shall be made and maintained by all parties to treat the complaint in a sensitive and confidential fashion, consistent with providing reasonable information to the complainant and the person against whom the complaint is made as to the nature of the allegation, the progress of the complaint, and its resolution or disposition; - the complaint shall be made to as impartial a person as possible, being the President or designate and who is not the person against whom the complaint is made.
- Any sexual harassment or violence investigation shall be handled by a qualified, trained investigator.

Periodic complaint process updates will be provided in writing to the complainant, upon the complainant's request. Upon completion of an investigation, the complainant will be provided with a formal written notice informing them of the results of the investigation and corrective actions taken.

Complainants may appeal the results of the investigation within 30 days of receiving the formal notice.

All colleges shall have and maintain a policy with respect to workplace sexual harassment at the College, which must consider all members of the College community, including staff who have been harassed by students.

Upon each review of its sexual harassment and violence policy, the College shall conduct a community consultation that includes all employee groups (Admin, Support FT, Support PT, Academic FT & Academic PT), as well as a working group that includes at least 3 Full-Time Support Staff. The College will also consult the Union on the review at UCC.

The College shall provide comprehensive sexual harassment and human rights code training to all managers. The College shall provide mandatory sexual harassment and violence training to all staff.

It is agreed that the complainant may choose a Union representative to assist in presenting the complaint.

At any point in the procedure the complaint may be referred to the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario (HRTO).

The timelines set out in Article 18 do not apply to complaints under this article, provided that the complaint is made within a reasonable time of the conduct complained of, or having regard to all the circumstances.

4.4.2 Bullying/Psychological Harassment

The College shall make reasonable provisions to ensure that employees have the right to be free from bullying/psychological harassment as defined within this article. The College and the Local Union shall cooperate to the fullest extent possible to ensure the workplace is free from bullying/psychological harassment.

Bullying/psychological harassment refers to any vexatious behaviour that is known, or ought reasonably to be known, to be unwelcome and that:

- takes the form of repeated conduct which could reasonably be regarded as intending to intimidate, offend, degrade or humiliate, and/or
- affects an employee's dignity, or psychological or physical integrity, and/or results in a harmful work environment.

Examples of bullying/psychological harassment include, but are not limited to, the following:

- berating/belittling an individual;
- repeated unwarranted criticism;
- undermining or deliberately impeding a person's work;
- spreading malicious rumours or gossip that is not true:
- physical gestures intended to intimidate, offend, degrade or humiliate an individual.

Reasonable action by a College, a manager and/or a supervisor in the course of managing the workplace is not bullying/psychological harassment. Examples of this include, but are not limited to, the following:

- the transfer, demotion, discipline, counsel or dismissal of an employee in a reasonable manner:
- a decision, based on reasonable grounds and facts, not to promote or grant another benefit in connection with an employee's employment or performance.

The parties recognize that bullying/psychological harassment is unacceptable in the workplace, and to that end acknowledge the following objectives:

- a complaint of this nature shall be promptly investigated and, where warranted, appropriate action taken;
- Any bullying/psychological harassment complaint shall be handled by a qualified, trained investigator.

- every effort shall be made and maintained by all parties to treat the complaint in a sensitive and confidential fashion, consistent with providing reasonable information to the complainant and the person against whom the complaint is made as to the nature of the allegation, the progress of the complaint, and its resolution or disposition;
- the complaint shall be made to as impartial a person as possible, being the President or their designate and who is not the person against whom the complaint is made;
- frivolous allegations of bullying/psychological harassment that are unfounded, shall be treated as a disciplinary offence, that could lead to dismissal;
- -allegations found to be true, shall be treated as a disciplinary offence that could lead to dismissal.

Periodic complaint process updates shall be provided in writing to the complainant, upon the complainant's request.

Upon completion of an investigation, the complainant shall be provided with a formal written notice informing them of the results of the investigation and corrective actions taken.

Complainants may appeal the results of the investigation within 30 days of receiving the formal notice.

All colleges shall have and maintain a policy with respect to workplace bullying/psychological harassment at the College, which must consider all members of the College community, including staff who have been harassed by students.

Upon each review of its bullying/psychological harassment policy, the College shall conduct a community consultation that includes all employee groups (Admin, Support FT, Support PT, Faculty FT & Faculty PT), as well as a working group that includes at least 3 Full-Time Support Staff. The College will also consult the Union on the review at UCC.

The College shall provide comprehensive bullying/psychological harassment and human rights code training to all managers.

The College will provide mandatory bullying/psychological harassment training to all staff.

It is agreed that the complainant may choose a Union representative to assist them in presenting the complaint.

All colleges shall have and maintain a policy with respect to workplace bullying/psychological harassment at the College.

The timelines set out in Article 18 do not apply to complaints under this article, provided that the complaint is made within a reasonable time of the conduct complained of, or having regard to all the circumstances.

UP 44 LOU (NEW) Amended as per U3

Whereas Ontario's community college system is currently facing a crisis due to chronic underfunding by the provincial government; and

Whereas tuition revenue has tripled across the colleges since 2010, while provincial funding has declined by twenty-eight (28) percent; and

Whereas Ontario ranks dead-last among the provinces for per-student funding; and

Whereas $1.4 billion in emergency funding would put an end to the current crisis; and

Whereas a further $1.34 billion in funding would bring Ontario up to the national average for per-student funding; and

Whereas OPSEU/SEFPO and the College Employer Council share the mutual goal of ending the funding crisis through the share goals of consultation, collaboration and cooperation;

Therefore the parties agree to jointly demand the provincial government to establish a discussion table to consult and negotiate meaningfully and good faith the necessary emergency and stability funding to end the crisis and ensure Ontario's college system is properly funded to save programs, secure jobs and protect students stability.

NOTE: "Parties" referred to include Colleges Ontario, College Presidents/Administration, and Support Staff across the province.

LOU (NEW) There shall be no college or campus closures, or college mergers for the life of the collective agreement.

LOU (NEW) There shall be no staff reductions for the life of the collective agreement.

NEW Enhanced Severance LOU CEC's Counterproposal:

(NEW) Letter of Understanding – Enhanced Severance Payments
